DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 26-27 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

4. Claims 26-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gauvin (U.S. Patent 5,790,800) in view of Kikinis (U.S. Patent US006421325B1).

As to claim 26, Gauvin discloses a system for rendering difficult the use of a module with an unauthorized peripheral device, comprising; at least one module that can be connected wirelessly (see col. 3, lines 30-35), the wireless module including at least one security code; at least one peripheral device having an input device and a display and communicating with the module only if a human user provides the security code to the peripheral device and the security code provide to the peripheral device matches the security code provided to the wireless module (see col. 1, line 50 – col. 2, line 14; col. 3, lines 36-43). Gauvin does not specifically disclose a module including a wireless transceiver. In an analogous art, Kikinis discloses a module including a wireless transceiver (see abstract), thereby allowing a wireless connection. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of the ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to add this teaching to the Gauvin system for enhanced connectivity for the users.

Regarding claim 27 is the corresponding method claims of system claim 26. Therefore, claim 26 is rejected for the same reason shown above.

Conclusion

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of
